

2024 Georgia Local Section of the American Industrial Hygiene Association (GLS-AIHA) Scholarship Program Information

Applications are now being accepted for the 2024 GLS-AIHA Scholarship Program. Applicants must meet the following criteria:

- A current undergraduate student (entering their junior or senior years), OR a student currently in or entering a graduate program who meets the following requirements:
 - Attends or is entering (for Graduate programs) a College or University in the State of Georgia, OR is a resident of the State of Georgia attending or entering (for Graduate programs) a College or University in another U.S. State.
 - Is a full time student with at least a 3.0 GPA.
 - Seeking a degree in industrial hygiene, occupational health, environmental health, or another related program.

Awards are $3000 per scholarship and are based on degree being sought, academic achievement, leadership, civic involvement, and essay responses.

Application packets must be completed by June 1, 2024.

Please contact Sean Castillo at sean.castillo@innovate.gatech.edu for any additional information.